* k. OL reports that on Sunday, 29 June, Allied plumbers performed emergency repairs on a steam line in the North Basement. The line, which blew a gasket, caused steam to leak and pressure to drop. An emergency unscheduled steam outage was required to repair the steam lines. Service was restored by 1800 hours the same day. No adverse impact on normal operations within the Headquarters Building was experienced. [redacted]

* l. The historical intelligence show of "Donovan and the Fighting 69th" was removed by OL and returned to lenders on 27 June. The Fine Arts Committee exhibit in the 1D Exhibit Hall of Headquarters for July is entitled "England: Castles, Cathedrals, Countrysides;" photographs by [redacted] of Printing and Photography Division. [redacted]

* n. OL received a request for the production of the "Shanghai Street Guide." This project consists of 2,800 books, which will include various multicolored maps of Shanghai. Completion is targeted for late July. [redacted]

* o. The Printing and Photography Division, OL, is continuing production of the World Factbook which consists of two versions, classified and unclassified. Included in these publications are approximately 304 pages of text and 20 area maps. On 27 June, 19,000 copies of the unclassified version was completed and delivered to the customer. Completion of the classified version, which consists of 5,100 copies, is targeted for 7 July. [redacted]

p. On 1 July, a representative from the Printing and Photography Division, OL, attended a demonstration of new technological equipment not previously shown to the public. The Sony Corporation of America demonstrated its latest Compact Discs, user-recordable two-sided video discs, and hard-copy color cathode ray tube imaging systems hardware. The demonstration was hosted by the Library of Congress at the Madison Building on 1 and 2 July between 1000 and 1600 hours. [redacted]
